- Any personal details held in text you submit.

We process your information, but only with your consent pursuant to Article 6 (1)(1)(a) GDPR.

We use best endeavours to confirm that any personal information you provide about a third party is either unused, or that appropriate consent has been given.

b) When visiting our website

When you visit gocatshill.co.uk our hosting system automatically collects certain information transmitted from your browser to our website and we temporarily store that information in a log file. In the course of this procedure, the following data is collected and stored, without any action on your part, until the time of automatic deletion:

- the IP address of the accessing computer
- the date and time of access
- the name and URL of the retrieved file
- the website from which access is made (Referrer-URL)
- the browser used by you and, if necessary
- the operating system of your computer as well as the name of your Internet Access Provider

The purposes of processing any of the data mentioned above are as follows:

- establishing a successful connection to our website
- guaranteeing a convenient usability of our website
- for reasons of system security and statistical evaluation and
- for other administrative purposes.

The legal bases of the processing of data is Article 6 (1)(1)(f) of the GDPR, legitimate interests resulting from the listed purposes of processing above. Under no circumstances will we use the collected data to identify an individual. We use cookies and analytical services to automatically collect information about you when you visit our website. Further information on this can be found in sec. 5 and 6 of this privacy policy.

3. Retention of Data

Extragenius Ltd retain personal data submitted by contributors to the site.

The information is stored on UK based secure servers until either:

- a) the contributor requests that the data is erased
- b) the content is permanently removed from the web site(s), in which case the record will be archived and eventually deleted.
- c) An item is superseded by the contributor, in which case an old record may be overwritten with more up-to-date one

Some data is also held on local computers at the offices of Extragenius Ltd, so that we can plan, develop and maintain the gocatshill site(s). When data is deleted from UK2 servers, a physical record and / or backup can remain there in place for up to 2 months.

Copies of some records are also held on local computers at Extragenius offices. This is for planning, design, development and maintenance of sites.

Local backups of computers are taken and overwritten on a cycle over up to 2 years.

4. Disclosure of Data

Extragenius Ltd may share personal data to third parties when:

- you have given your expressly consent pursuant to Article 6 (1)(1)(a) GDPR,
- pursuant to Article 6 (1)(1)(f) GDPR, it is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims and there is no reason to believe of overriding your legitimate interest in preventing the disclosure of your personal data,
- pursuant to Article 6 (1)(1)(c) GDPR, there is a legal obligation for us to do so
- it is permitted by law and, pursuant to Article 6 (1)(1)(b) GDPR, it is necessary for the settlement of the terms and conditions of the contract with you.

5. Cookies

We use cookies on our website. Cookies are small text files that are automatically sent to or accessed from your web browser and stored on your device (laptop, tablet, smartphone etc.) when visiting our website. Cookies do not cause any damage on your computer and do not contain any malware (viruses, Trojans and other programs causing harm). A cookie contains information resulting from the connection with a specific device but no information, which betray your identity. The application of Cookies helps us improve your experience of our services. We use so-called session cookies to recognise the pages of our website you have visited before. They are deleted automatically when you leave our website.

We use cookies to compile statistics about the use of the website that help us to improve our services (see sec. 6). These cookies are automatically deleted after a defined period of time. Data processed by cookies is required for purposes mentioned above for the protection of our and third parties' legitimate interests pursuant to Article 6 (1)(1)(f) GDPR. Most Internet browsers automatically accept cookies. However, you can configure your browser so that no cookies are stored on your computer or a message appears whenever you receive a new cookie. However, deactivating cookies may prevent you from having access to all features available through our website.

6. Analytical tools

In order to constantly improve and optimise our services, we use so-called tracking technologies – pursuant to Article 6 (1)(1)(f) GDPR. Moreover, we utilise them to analyse how users use the site. In accordance with the before-mentioned article these interests are considered 'legitimate'. The relevant purposes of data processing and data categories can be found in the corresponding tracking technologies.
